

Call for Applications Erasmus+ Study 2025-2026 Second Round (for mobility in the second term)

The second round for applications to Erasmus+ Study in 2025-2026 is now open, as established in the original call for applications.

The second round is exclusively for mobility periods planned for the second term of the academic year 2025-2026.

Application deadline: 6th June 2025 at 12:00.

The call, all forms, application instructions and the list of possible destinations are available on the webpage dedicated to the Erasmus+ Study call for applications:

(https://sites.units.it/internationalia/en/erasmusplus-out/?file=stu_studio.html&cod=2025), under the section 'call for applications')

The selection will be carried out according to the criteria already approved and indicated in the call.

The rankings will be published on the official University Notice Board and on the call webpage by 23rd June 2025. The online publication of this list has legal value.

Successful candidates must accept their mobility by logging in to the online academic services portal (Esse3). Mobility placements can only be accepted from the moment of the publication of the rankings until 26th June 2025 (at 12:00).

If the student fails to accept or refuses their mobility placement, they give up their right to the entire mobility period and they will have no right to re-allocation within the period covered by the Erasmus+ Study call 2025-2026.

Candidates who are not offered a place should check whether a place has become available and accept any reallocation by logging in to online academic services (Esse3) after the acceptance deadline (i.e. 26th June) by 27th June 2025 (at 12:00).
