

DESTINO ESPAÑA – SELF-STUDY ONLINE COURSE

This self-study online course is designed to prepare students for a semester abroad at the Universidad de Alicante (Spain). Spanish language and culture are transmitted in this course with a communicative approach related to academic life.

Do you intend to go to Alicante for a semester? Do you already have an A2.2 level in Spanish? Are you willing to work independently over 10 weeks in the summer semester to complete the course in the Moodle platform as a preparation for studying abroad? For practical, oral assignments, possible difficulties, concrete questions and exchange with the teacher and with other students, there will be an online event (MS Teams) every 2 weeks.

You can expect a lot of important and practical information about university life in Spain and strategies to cope with everyday life on site.

All skills: reading, writing, speaking, listening will be covered in connection with topics of academic life in Spain.

Preliminary meeting: 17.04.23 / 14:15 / MS Teams

Duration: 17.04.23 to 03.07.23

Learning material: every week a new lesson in Moodle for self-learning

5 Online Events: Dates to be announced / Mon. 14:15 / MS Teams

Language level: all levels from A2.2 welcome

Contact: e.fernandez@szsb.uni-saarland.de

Please take the online placement test from the Language Center to find out your Spanish level first.

In order to receive the 3 ECTS, you must have worked through the 10 lessons, handed in the corresponding assignments and participated in the online events.
